

I am a faithful listener and supporter of K-LOVE, and have been so for more than a year. K-LOVE keeps me apprised of Christian responses to problems that affect not only me as a person, but my state and my country. I feel privileged that K-LOVE is a very integral part of my life.

I believe K-LOVE has changed lives—it certainly has changed mine. Not only is the music uplifting and upbeat, the content that K-LOVE broadcasts is timely and has had a profound effect on social attitudes and beliefs. I know that its popularity has grown since I first began to listen—and I'm pleasantly surprised when I hear that more and more young people are listening to the music and messages. I am finding myself more and more cognizant of what I choose to put into my psyche, primarily because K-LOVE has been a powerful mentor.

There is far too much negativity in the world today—far too much emphasis on the evils that have infiltrated every area of our lives. K-LOVE emphasizes the good things that are happening in our communities and the nation, which most media often overlook. K-LOVE's positive message is vital in a nation that is seeking to find hope.
